12 APPEARANCES

E7P8GELS

1 (Case called)

2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Is the government ready to proceed?

3 MR. BLAIS: Yes. Good afternoon, your Honor. Brian
4 Blais for the government.

5 THE DEPUTY CLERK: For the defendant Gelman, are you
6 ready to proceed?

7 MR. STRAZZULLO: Yes, your Honor. Good afternoon.
8 Sal Strazzullo on behalf of Mr. Gelman. Good afternoon again,
9 your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Good afternoon and welcome.

11 Mr. Strazzullo, have you and your client both read the 12 presentence report?

13 MR. STRAZZULLO: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Have you discussed it with each other?

15 MR. STRAZZULLO: We have.

16 THE COURT: Do you have any objections to it other
17 than what might be contained in your written sentencing
18 submissions?

19 MR. STRAZZULLO: No objections other than the 20 memorandum I have submitted to the Court, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 The presentence report will be made part of the record
23 in this case and placed under seal. If an appeal is taken,
24 counsel on appeal may have access to the sealed report without 25 further application to this Court.

E7P8GELS

1 I have received victim impact statements pursuant to a
2 cover letter of July 22 from the U.S. Attorney's Office. I
3 have a sentencing memorandum filed by the government on July
4 18, and I have a sentencing memorandum by the defendant filed
5 on July 11.

6 There is a request for a minimum role adjustment under
7 the sentencing guidelines in defense counsel's letter that I
8 believe would be a breach of the plea agreement. The 9 government is construing it simply as an argument in support of 10 a variance under Section 3553(a).

11 Is that the correct interpretation I should make of 12 it, Mr. Strazzullo?

13 MR. STRAZZULLO: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 I have a proposed restitution order. I assume that 16 this actually should be filed under seal.

17 Is that right, Mr. Blais?

18 MR. BLAIS: Your Honor, because it does not have 19 contact info for any of these individuals, I believe that it
20 can be filed without being under seal.

21 THE COURT: OK. I don't want to file the names in the 22 public record. I am happy to file the redacted copy in the 23 public record, but I think the names should be filed under 24 seal.

25 MR. BLAIS: We don't object to that. That's fine,

E7P8GELS

1 your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Any objection to me executing this
3 restitution order, Mr. Strazzullo?

4 MR. STRAZZULLO: No, your Honor. In regards to the 5 names in the restitution order, Mr. Gelman has seen it, but 6 doesn't have a copy of the actual document, but he has reviewed
7 it with me, just to inform the Court that it is in my 8 possession and not in his.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 I have already executed a preliminary order of 11 forfeiture, and I make that order as well part of this 12 sentencing proceeding.

13 This is a case in which there was a plea agreement
14 with an offense level of 23 and a criminal history category of 15 I. The probation department arrives at the same calculation.
16 The parties do not object to it. I reviewed the support for 17 that, and I adopt it as my own. If there were litigation over 18 the defendant's role, I would not find a role adjustment to be 19 appropriate here, either a minor or a minimal role adjustment.
20 Therefore, the sentencing guidelines range is 46 to 57 months.
21 The probation department recommends a sentence of 46 months.

22 Before we get to presentation with respect to sentence
23 by the defendant and the government, I understand that there is 24 a victim who wishes to address the Court, is that right,
25 Mr. Blais?

E7P8GELS

1 MR. BLAIS: That is correct, your Honor. John Downer,
2 who is a family member of one of the victims of the offense,
3 Robert Downer, wishes to address the Court pursuant to the 4 crime victims' rights statute.

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 Is Mr. Downer in the courtroom?

7 Mr. Downer, do you want to come up to the podium,
8 please, and identify yourself by name, and I would be happy to 9 listen to anything you have to say.

10 MR. DOWNER: Thank you.

11 My name is John Downer. I am here on behalf of my 12 father, Robert Downer, who passed away on January 11th of this 13 year. He was born in the town of Montgomery, New York 70 years
14 ago. He was the first of his family to go to college. He 15 earned a regents' scholarship to Union College. He then
16 received a scholarship to the medical school at Tulane
17 University.

18 During medical school he was diagnosed with type 1
19 diabetes, which changed his life forever. He knew his life in 20 the future would not be the same now, and he decided to work as 21 much as he could for as long as he could. He worked 70 to 80
22 hours a week. He took care of anyone at any time, regardless
23 whether or not they could pay for their care or not. His goal
24 was to be a great health-care provider and build financial 25 stability for himself.

E7P8GELS

1 My father believed in education. He paid for his
2 cousins', employees' and children's educations. He set up two 3 scholarships to his alma maters. Due to the acts of this 4 criminal, the dreams of future students to further their 5 education has been taken away from them.

6 This criminal enterprise fed on the sick, elderly, and 7 easily taken advantage of individuals. My father battled 8 diabetes for more than 40 years, received a kidney transplant
9 and fought sepsis. This left him unable to communicate and 10 socialize as he once had. He was homebound and the perfect
11 victim for this criminal enterprise. For years he was 12 encouraged to invest after being mailed false investment
13 statements. He told the people at AR Capital his dream for his 14 money was to educate his grandchildren and to take care of 15 himself as he came more dependent on extra care. After the 16 group of criminals took more than $7 million, he was encouraged 17 to borrow against the house he owned in full. Their goal was 18 not only to bankrupt him, but to leave him homeless.

19 Mr. Gelman ran and hid for many years. I can only 20 assume living a great life off of the millions of dollars he 21 stole. I do not see any mitigating factors not to sentence him
22 to the longest prison term allowed by law.

23 Number one, he worked with a group of other criminals
24 to steal from one of the most vulnerable groups of our society,
25 the elderly. Number two, getting his victims bankrupt was not

E7P8GELS

1 sufficient. He wanted to leave them homeless and unable to do
2 anything that would bring them happiness, like traveling to 3 graduation ceremonies, birthday parties, or to any special
4 family occasion. Number three, he ran when given the chance to 5 admit and try to repay his victims for his crimes, and may have
6 only came back from the Ukraine because it's really bad there
7 now. Number four, Mr. Gelman's list of victims is greater than 8 you will ever know.

9 Your Honor, I appreciate the forum to speak today and 10 for your consideration to what I have said and to my father's 11 suffering. If you have any questions, I would be glad to 12 answer you.

13 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Downer, and I am very sorry
14 for your family's loss. And, of course, the loss your family
15 suffered is not just the loss of your father through his recent 16 death, but I encompass within that the financial loss that your 17 family has suffered.

18 I will hear from the government.

19 MR. BLAIS: Thank you, your Honor.

20 In his sentencing submission, the defendant has asked 21 for a non-incarceratory sentence. For the reasons that we 22 outlined in our sentencing submission, we believe that that 23 would be entirely inappropriate in this case. Not only because 24 other defendants with equal culpability have received
25 substantial sentences in this case, but because the defendant's

E7P8GELS

1 actions have had real impact on real individuals.

2 You have heard from one family here today who suffered
3 substantially as a result of the defendant's actions. And you
4 can see a glimpse of that as well in the victim impact
5 statements that we have received, among the more powerful
6 victim impact statements I have ever read in any case I have 7 ever been associated with.

8 This is not a circumstance where individuals took a 9 flier and invested $100 on a potential stock investment. The 10 individuals who invested in this case, and you can see from the 11 restitution order, virtually all of them invested at least 12 $10,000 as part of this scheme, many of them, including 13 Mr. Downer, for example, substantially more. And you can see 14 from the victim impact statements that for many of these 15 individuals impacted by this crime that what they invested was 16 not just pocket change or spare change. For many of them it
17 was their entire life savings. There was a specific instance I
18 recall from the victim impact statement of somebody who cashed
19 in their IRA, a retirement fund, in order to be able to invest
20 in this scheme.

21 This was a brazen fraud that preyed on some of the 22 most vulnerable people in our society. Many of the victim
23 impact statements are from elderly individuals, people in their 24 60s and 70s and 80s, who not only have lost this money, but are 25 struggling to make ends meet today more than five years after

E7P8GELS

1 this -- actually, almost ten years after this fraud was
2 completed. The harms in this case were real and impacted real
3 individuals. This was a serious offense that warrants a
4 substantial sentence of incarceration because it had a real
5 impact on a number of victims.

6 Also, this is the kind of offense that calls for 7 general deterrence, for a message to those who would prey on 8 vulnerable people through these kinds of fraudulent investment
9 schemes, that there is a consequence, that there is a real
10 price to pay for causing harm to innocent and unwitting
11 individuals. This is a case that calls for that kind of 12 message, and I think a substantial sentence is warranted as a 13 result of that.

14 Now, as part of this sentencing, there are, rightly
15 so, financial consequences to this defendant of having to repay
16 the victims, to the extent he can, through the restitution
17 order, to forfeit the proceeds that he obtained from this 18 event, and that is appropriate and called for in this 19 circumstance where there are real victims and real people who 20 have suffered.

21 So, in sum, and I don't want to repeat and rehash what 22 we have said in our sentencing submission, this defendant's 23 conduct, which is at the core of the fraud, he was the one who 24 dealt with the investors and got them to part with their money.
25 That's the core essence of the fraud here, that is a real

E7P8GELS

1 offense and a serious and consequential offense, and it calls
2 for a sentence that is substantial. And we believe a sentence
3 within the guidelines range of 46 to 57 months appropriately
4 accounts for all of the factors set forth in Section 3553(a),
5 including the nature and circumstances and seriousness of this
6 offense, the general and specific deterrent purposes set forth
7 therein, as well as the history and characteristics of this
8 defendant. And as we outlined, and as your Honor is well
9 familiar from the circumstances of this case, there was a
10 substantial period of time where this defendant was a fugitive
11 from justice and delayed the time where the victims in this
12 case could get real recompense, and that is certainly a factor
13 that is well worth considering in fashioning an appropriate 14 sentence in this case.

15 Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Strazzullo.

17 MR. STRAZZULLO: Good afternoon again, your Honor.

18 I would like to first start off by stating that there
19 isn't anything that Mr. Blais or the victim's son has said that 20 is not true. These are actual victims. We have never doubted
21 that. We don't object to that.

22 With respect to Mr. Gelman, as the government has 23 stated in their own words at prior hearings, Mr. Gelman was 24 essentially just a salesperson. In any criminal enterprise,
25 your Honor, as you very well know, there are different levels

E7P8GELS

1 of culpability, the president, the vice president, going down
2 the line of the structure of any criminal enterprise. Mr.
3 Gelman was basically just a salesperson. Yes, he did wrong,
4 but his level of wrongdoing is different than the president,
5 the vice president, the people that ran the day-to-day affairs
6 of the company.

7 Now, Mr. Fishman, who was the actual president,
8 received a sentence of 37 months. Now, looking at what the 9 government stated, they said, well, he didn't run the 10 day-to-day affairs. Well, not that many presidents in criminal 11 enterprises run the day-to-day affairs. They have the 12 low-level workers doing the grunt work and the dirty work.

13 So in regards to his role in the offense, I would ask
14 your Honor to consider that his role was, at the very least, a
15 minimal role, as the government has made an admission in prior 16 hearings.

17 THE COURT: I am sorry. The government made an 18 admission in prior hearings that Mr. Gelman's role was a 19 minimal role?

20 MR. STRAZZULLO: Not a minimal role, that he was 21 merely, essentially, a salesperson. I apologize if I misspoke,
22 your Honor.

23 In regards to who Mr. Gelman is, he has never been in 24 trouble before. Yes, this crime happened, it occurred. I am
25 not doubting that whatsoever and neither is Mr. Gelman.

E7P8GELS

1 However, we have to look at Mr. Gelman's upbringing. Number
2 one, mainly, the way he was raised. Not everyone is raised in
3 a traditional family, mom and dad. His mom served time in jail
4 for stealing shoes to feed the family. She served two years in 5 prison. Mr. Gelman's dad was an alcoholic and basically didn't 6 want anything to do with Mr. Gelman. In addition, his 7 stepfather physically abused his mom right in front of Gary
8 while Mr. Gelman was growing up.

9 He has basically been on his own since he was 16 years
10 old, your Honor. He came here with his paternal grandmother.
11 He has a very, very strong relationship with his son. As you
12 can see, he does have substantial community friends and ties to 13 the community where I believe he could basically do better from 14 this lesson that he has learned, which is a very, very tragic 15 lesson to the victims, to the government, and to the United 16 States in whole.

17 Currently Mr. Gelman is on home confinement with his 18 mom, living with his mom. He works as a stockboy at a liquor
19 store in the neighborhood. He has complied with all of your 20 Honor's requests regarding home confinement, curfew, etc., etc.
21 He has not had any marks, anything since he has had home
22 confinement.

23 Your Honor, most importantly, why is Mr. Gelman back?
24 Yes. What is going on in the Ukraine at this moment is not the 25 best place to be, but he has engaged my law firm for over now

E7P8GELS

1 two years when these things weren't occurring. I just want to 2 make that clear. He could have stayed in the Ukraine, your 3 Honor. He did not have to come back. As a matter of fact, he 4 met with FBI agents there well over two years ago to try to get
5 his passport back so he could travel back. He had a nice life
6 there. His family could visit him any time he wanted. He did
7 not have to spend one single day in jail. He basically had no
8 reason to return other than facing justice, taking 9 responsibility, and taking apparent responsibility for all the 10 actions that took place in this criminal conspiracy. Most of 11 all, to basically mend the ties with his family, especially his 12 son, which he did not have that, your Honor. He did not have 13 what he is trying to give to his son.

14 Looking at all of this, I would ask your Honor for the 15 most lenient sentence, a sentence in regards to basically 16 imposing a sentence that is sufficient but not greater than 17 necessary to comply under 3553(a), your Honor.

18 I thank you. Again, on behalf of Mr. Gelman, I 19 apologize to the victims, especially the victim that made the 20 statement today, to the United States government, and to you,
21 yourself, your Honor, and apologize to his family. Mr. Gelman
22 at this time would like to make a statement, whenever you're 23 ready, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: I just wanted to raise with you, Mr.
25 Strazzullo, there is a statement in your submission that Mr.

E7P8GELS

1 Gelman's wife relies upon Mr. Gelman for his support. I
2 understand that she has a relationship now with another man,
3 and she has another child, that she is not living with the 4 defendant, and I just wanted to make sure I understand those 5 facts correctly.

6 MR. STRAZZULLO: That is correct, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: So, Mr. Gelman, I will hear anything that 8 you have to say on your behalf.

9 MR. STRAZZULLO: Thank you.

10 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I would like to extend my 11 deepest apologies to everyone who were affected by my actions.
12 My initial intentions were never malicious. However, everyone
13 around me has been feeling the wrath of my poor decisions. I
14 want to extend my deepest apologies to the innocent victims who 15 have suffered the financial, emotional, and moral burden on my 16 wrongdoings. I am forever in debt to you for hurting your 17 families and your lives.

18 I would like apologize to you, your Honor, to the 19 Court and to the government. Also, I would like to say sorry
20 to my family and friends.

21 As a child growing up, I had no one to point me to the 22 right direction. I realized what I did and came back to pay
23 for my mistakes and poor decisions. I missed five years of my 24 son's life and don't want to miss any more time. I want to be 25 there for him and help him make the right decisions to see him

E7P8GELS

1 mature and become a good man that I think he can be. Life has 2 taught me many things, but none of which is stronger than the
3 pain I have caused my family, my friends, and the innocent
4 victims. My choices are not who I am. However, they have 5 brought me here, and I ask you to please understand that as a
6 human I made mistakes, and I will always live with the heavy
7 burden in my heart.

8 Again, I am deeply sorry and take full responsibility
9 for my actions.

10 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Gelman.

11 Well, this was a blatant, large-scale fraud that had 12 enormous far-reaching consequences for its victims. You were 13 involved for a significant period of time. The deceit and the 14 fraud I don't think can be overstated. I don't find any role
15 adjustment to be appropriate. You were an essential player in 16 this fraud. You communicated directly with the victims. You
17 told lies. Your false statements and misrepresentations caused 18 their losses. You knew what you were doing was wrong.
19 Therefore, I am not, considering all the factors under Section
20 3553(a), going to vary from a guideline sentence here. I find
21 that individual and general deterrence and appropriate
22 punishment suggests strongly that the sentence outlined in the 23 guidelines are appropriate here.

24 Please stand.

25 I impose a term of imprisonment of 46 months, to be

E7P8GELS

1 followed by a term of supervised release of three years, with
2 the following special conditions:

3 You shall report to the probation office in the 4 district to which you are released within 72 hours of release
5 from custody.

6 You shall not commit another federal, state or local 7 crime.

8 You shall not illegally possess a controlled
9 substance.

10 You shall submit to the regular drug testing program.

11 You are prohibited from possessing a firearm or other
12 dangerous weapon.

13 You shall cooperate in the collection of DNA.

14 You must pay restitution.

15 You must comply with the standard conditions of 16 supervised release.

17 You must participate in a program approved by the 18 probation department for alcohol abuse.

19 You shall submit to a reasonable search by the 20 probation department.

21 You must seek and maintain full-time employment.

22 You are to provide the probation department access to 23 any and all requested financial information.

24 You must not incur any new credit card charges or open
25 any new credit lines without approval of the probation

E7P8GELS

1 department.

2 You shall notify the U.S. Attorney's Office within 30
3 days of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs
4 while any portion of restitution remains unpaid.

5 You shall be supervised by the district of your 6 residence.

7 You shall pay a special assessment of $100.

8 I decline to impose a fine given the substantial
9 restitution amount that you must pay.

10 Counsel, is there any legal reason why I cannot impose
11 the sentence I have described as stated?

12 MR. BLAIS: No, your Honor.

13 MR. STRAZZULLO: No, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I order the sentence I have described on 15 the record to be imposed as stated.

16 You may be seated, Mr. Gelman.

17 I believe there are open counts.

18 MR. BLAIS: Yes, your Honor. The government would 19 move to dismiss open counts, as well as the underlying 20 indictment as to this defendant.

21 THE COURT: Your application is granted.

22 Mr. Gelman, I need to advise you of your right to 23 appeal. If you are unable to pay the cost of an appeal, you
24 may apply for leave to appeal in forma pauperis. Any notice of 25 appeal must be filed within 10 days of the judgment of

E7P8GELS

1 conviction.

2 You must surrender to the designated institution for 3 service of your sentence by August 29 at 2:00. Failure to 4 appear will subject you to separate punishment and an
5 additional period of incarceration. If there is no designated
6 institution, you must surrender to the U.S. marshals in this 7 courthouse by that date and time.

8 Counsel, is there anything else?

9 MR. STRAZZULLO: Your Honor, just in regards to your 10 recommendation for a facility, as he is going to do 46 months, 11 can it be somewhere in the vicinity of where his family is in 12 Brooklyn so he can retain and work on his family ties and 13 connection.

14 THE COURT: I will recommend to the Bureau of Prisons
15 a designation to a facility as close as possible to New York
16 City.

17 Anything else?

18 MR. STRAZZULLO: Thank you, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Counsel, is there anything else?

20 MR. BLAIS: Nothing from the government, your Honor.

21 MR. STRAZZULLO: No, your Honor.

22 oOo
